

Cited Scripture: Mat 28:19 ASV

Go ye therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit:

Observation: The Great Commission of Christianity is embodied in this verse, where the resurrected Jesus Christ instructed his disciples to spread his teachings to all the nations. As a tenet of Christian theology, Jesus' instruction emphasizes evangelism to all nations, which anchors the theme of the Lausanne Covenant. According to the previous introduction, the Covenant members:

LC Quote: "We are determined by his grace to obey Christ's commission to proclaim it to all mankind and to make disciples of every nation."

Interpretation: Matthew 28:19 is the primary anchor for the erroneous Christian tenet that God is only a three-way Trinity, since Father, Son, and Holy Spirit total three. But a true count of the entities in this verse must include humanity as "all Nations", or "all mankind", at the foot of the Cross of God with a total of FOUR attributes. It is ironic the verse that is the main theme of the Lausanne Covenant actually includes a complete description of God of the 4-way Cross. That is why the hypocrisy of the Lausanne Covenant (rejection of the 4-way God of the Cross yet use the cross as a symbol of identity) is so great.

Jesus preached the four-way Cross of God. That is why Jesus said in Matthew 10:38 ASV:

And he that doth not take his cross and follow after me, isn't worthy of me.

That is to say, a human who does not know the cross of God as God of the Cross, cannot take his cross of God, and therefore, isn't worthy of Jesus. In other words, no salvation.
